Williams Overman Pierce, LLP + Barker Jones & Co.

Williams Overman Pierce, LLP is very pleased to announce that the long-standing Wilmington firm of Barker Jones & Co. has merged its practice into our firm effective January 2, 2020. Bill Barker will assume the role of Director in the Wilmington office. Williams Overman Pierce currently has offices in Raleigh and Greensboro, and we are excited about the opportunity for our combined team to serve clients in the Wilmington area.

“We are both honored and excited that the Barker Jones team is joining forces with our firm,” states Michael Womble, Managing Partner of Williams Overman Pierce. “Not only are our firms perfectly aligned in terms of culture, integrity and customer service, but the addition of Barker Jones is an important milestone in achieving our goals for dynamic growth throughout North Carolina and beyond.”

Williams Overman Pierce Is Pleased to Announce That Dan Lavelle Has Been Admitted as Its Newest Partner

Dan Lavelle is a partner in our Raleigh office providing accounting, audit, and general business consulting services to closely held businesses and nonprofit organizations. Dan works with a variety of industries, including technology, healthcare, manufacturing, certification, and startups. His focus includes ensuring exceptional client service by delivering the highest quality results and providing forward thinking advice and suggestions.
